Chapter 1 by Elia Hanna

I look out the window of my car as the trees pass by in a blur. Tears stream down my face as I think of all the memories I'm leaving behind. All the family and friends. My sister next to me tries not to stare but fails. Miserably. Finally, giving up, I ask, "what do you want?" Are you ok?" She asks. I wait. I want to respond and tell her everything. About the REAL reason our house burned down. About magic, and the evil one. I start to talk, but then my mom's words jump into my brain. "Whatever you do, DO NOT tell your sister. She's too young...." So instead of telling her the truth, all I say is, "I'm fine."

Chapter 2 by fytyt

She knows I'm lying. She can see it in my eyes. She can feel it with her powers. She continues to press. "Mommy, what's going on?"

"Nothing, dear. Mommy has to focus on the road," she says as she speeds up trying to escape the crime scene behind us.

My little sister grabs my arm, "Where's Daddy?" She whispers quietly. I stare ahead locking eyes
